

SOUTH CAROLINA VICTIM ASSISTANCE ACADEMY

Save the Date

2012 South Carolina Victim Assistance

Advanced Academy

This is a Free One Day Victim Assistance Academy

Tuesday, October 23, 2012, 9am – 5:15pm, in Greenville, SC
Greenville County Library
25 Heritage Green Place
Greenville, SC 29601

Visit www.scvaa.sc.gov for information on previous academies, topics and to download the application for the 2012 Advanced Academy.

Registration Deadline is September 21, 2012.

Participants Must Attend the Entire Day to Receive Full Credit.

The Governor's State Office of Victim Assistance (SOVA) will host a 1 day Advanced Victim Assistance Academy at the above location. The Advanced Academy will include focusing on how to deal with domestic violence in the church, how advocates can help the gay and lesbian community and management and leadership skills in victim services.

There is NO registration fee. Lunch will be provided by SOVA, along with a morning and afternoon snack. Lodging is the attendee's responsibility. There will be a charge for parking for those who leave before the end of the session.

Benefits for Attendees

- *Promote Excellence in Service to crime victims
 - *Assist Advocates and Service providers in meeting the needs of crime victims statewide
 - *Encourage Collaboration, Networking and Partnerships
 - *Obtain VSP and Law Enforcement Certification Hours
(Participants must attend the entire day to receive full credit)
-

For further information, call 803-734-1900 or email

Ethel D. Ford: eford@oepp.sc.gov

Genita L Snipes: gsnipes@oepp.sc.gov

PROMOTING EXCELLENCE

IN SERVICE
TO CRIME VICTIMS

